1 Moolabigrahams of Varadarajaswami with Bhoodevee	These idols are in the Siva temple of this Village which is a Inuzai Institution. They had been obtained by the grand-father of the present Shanbog of the Village for being consecrated in a new temple to be built for them. But the object was not carried out. The present Yaddavs have no objection to the removal of these idols.
Varadarajaswami	The temple containing this idol was formerly endowed with Inam Lands, but the temple fell into ruins and the Inam was therefore attached and resumed by Govt: many years back. No pooja is therefore now done in the temple.

PROCEEDINGS

Dated 25th January 1905.

No. 2692-9

Passing orders in the matter of the preservation of spare Vishnu or Siva idols (Moola Vigrahams) lying unworshipped and being fit for consecration in the several Muzrai Institutions in the Province.

SBP—9-2-05—200

From

No. Dated

In connection with the proposal to Consecrate a Vishnu Vigraha in the new Rameswara temple now under construction in Chamarajendrapet, Bangalore City, it has come to notice that a set of old stone idols consisting of Rama Devaru Seetammanavaru & Lakshmana Devaru are lying unused for many years in Kadaba in the Gubbi Taluk I have been in correspondence with the Deputy Commissioner of Tumkur and have ascertained that the idols are in good condition and can be used for Consecration.

In the Amildar, Mr. Ranga Rao's D.O. letter, full particulars are given and it is stated that there is a small white speck on the right Cheek of the Rama Devaru but that this defect is not very material as the idol might be consecrated on the performance of a Sánti. The Agamiks of this Office whom I sent to inspect these idols say that they are very good, and that there is no objection to use the idol of Ramadevaru after slightly touching it up.

Slip A

Slip B

Muzrai Secretariat. File No. of 190

The Amildar of Gubbi states that the people of Kadaba neither consecrate the idol themselves nor agree to sending the idols elsewhere and that their objections are groundless. The Amildar (Mr. Ranga Rao) who has now come to Bangalore on a few days leave, told me in person that the majority of the people of Kadaba have no objection to the removal of the idols and that the frivolous objections raised by a few need not be considered.

MGCPB—3.500—15-10-04

Muzrai Secretariat. File No. of 190

Under these circumstances I beg permission to orders being issued for the removal of the idols to Bangalore for Consecration in the new Eswara temple in Chamarajapurapet, Bangalore City. It is difficult to find such a collection of idols in good preservation and their consecration in Bangalore seems very desirable.

The Dy. Commissioners of Districts were directed, in Govt. order no. 2692-9 of 25th Jany 1905, to preserve Spare Vishnu or Siva idols lying unworshipped and being fit for consecration in the several Muty. insths. in the Province.

The Dy Comma. of the Mysore Distt has submitted his report thereon together with the Vern papers relating thereto.

From the Vern. pp. it is observed as follows:-

The Hobli Sheristdar reported to the Amildar of the Gundelpet taluk that, on information furnished by certain cow-herds, he went with certain Punchayatdars to a late grove of Bandagally Village in the Taluk and found 2 Vigrahas, one Vishnu and another Lakshmi and presented them in the Taluk office.

The Amildar reports that the Villagers of Raghavapur in that Taluk complained (ರಾಘವಾಪುರ) that these Vigrahas, which were being worshipped in the Village temple, were lost long ago; and prayed that they might be given away to them for procession and being worshipped in the temple. He adds that he sent for the Anmanavara idol, which is being worshipped in the temple and found that it exactly resembled the Vignahara in ~~Bhim~~. He further states that ~~he received~~ certain other individuals detailed in the Dy. C's letter under reply have applied for them and solicits orders as to their disposal.

(Letter no 1288 of 29th August 1905. Marked)

The Dy. Commr. reports that as directed by him, the Amildar sent the idols to his office and solicits instructions of Govt. ~~as~~ regarding their disposal. Submitted for orders and unmutilated.

2 Of the three idols, that of Sri Ramadevaru is ever reported to have a small whitish of about half an inch on the right cheek to right of the nose. The amildar adds, that idols such defective description are not according to certain Pandits of the place, hence they hence these idols have remained unconsecrated over 50 years, and that on the other hand Agama Sastras allow even idols of such a being consecrated if certain prescribed propitiatory ceremonies are performed to them.

3 The idols of Sri Ramadevaru, Seeth and Lakshmanadevaru measure respectively 3½'; 2½' and 2¾' in height including the pedestals.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceed-

1905 passing orders in the matter of the preservation of spare Vishnu or Siva idols lying unworshipped and being fit for consecration in the several Inugrai Institutions in the Province, I have the honor to submit herewith the file of Kan-
-nada papers ending with yadi
No. 212/131 dated 4th August 1905 receiv-ed from the Senior Assistant Commissioner, Nanjangud Division,
and to state that two idols one Vishnu and another Lakshmi are reported to have been found in a date grove of Bandagally village in the Gundlupet Taluk
No reports have been received regarding the loss of these idols
and no claimants have yet come forward.

During my recent tour of inspection

inspection I found these idols had been kept in the record room of the Gundlupet Taluk office and as directed by me The Amildar has sent them to this office

3. These idols seem to be very old and made of Panchaloha. The Vishnu idol is about 1½ feet high and weighs 540½ Tolas while the Lakshmi idol is 1 foot high and weighs 277 Tolas. I sent for a professional man to value these idols and he estimates them at Rs 102/- at Rs 3/- per seer.

4 The Amildar of the Gundlupet Taluk reports that (1) the villagers of Raghavapur in that Taluk and (2) Narasaiengar a Batta Amildar in the Huvinahalli Court at Nanjangud and (3) Narasimha a Record keeper in the Mysore City Municipal Office have applied for the grant of these idols with the object of erecting them in their (1) village temple for Puja and (2nd) in their own house (3rd) for similar purpose in the temple proposed to be built by his father A. Srinivasa iengar, on the roadside near Anegola village Nanjanagud Taluk. The other person wishes to have the said Utsava Vigra-has in the Sriramadevaru temple constructed by his father Mr. Ananthia (a retired Amildar) in the Devaraj Mohalla, Mysore city, as similar ones which he had were taken away some-time ago.

5 I therefore solicit the favor of instructions as to what should be done with them.

me where the mantap referred to is, to whom it belongs, and under whose authority it was given over to the said Srinivasangar, and also, whether you have taken the necessary precautions in accordance with the instructions laid down in Govt Pro: No 914 dated Jun F 58-92
6th June 1893, before allowing the new temple to spring up.

The favor of a very early reply will oblige

Yours sincerely,
